BRITISH DENOUNCE "MEAT TRUST"

MAJOR WALDORF ASTOR

Major Waldorf Astor, Parliamentary Secretary to the Food Ministry, in a discussion in the House of Commons, said that the "American Meat Trust" controlled more than 50 per cent of the available and importable meat supplies, which constitutes a serious menace, according to a dispatch from London. However, he added, the Inter-Allied Food Council set up by the Food Controller, which would buy in the world's markets, was going to be stronger than the trust. It would be able to dictate to the trust, if necessary, and would be able to fix reasonable prices to the consumers.

AN AWARD IS MADE TO THE POSTAL

Failing to Agree on Compensation for Telegraph and Cable Company Government Makes an Award for Property Taken

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, November 20.—Postmaster General Burleson announced today that failing to reach an agreement with the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company upon compensation to be paid for its lines during the period of government control, he had made an award which would be enforced so that the Department could facilitate a suit in the courts to determine final adjustments.

The Postmaster General asserts that the Postal Company in sworn statements to the wire control commission had represented its net operating income in 1916 to be $4,157,070, while the net income reported by its component corporation to the Inter-State Commerce Commission for the same period was $332,342.

This, he said, made it impossible for the Department to accept the company's proposal.

PLACE EMBARGO ON HOG RECEIPTS BY STOCK YARDS

Cincinnati Stock Yards Congested With Record Receipts

Other Price Fixing Methods Seem Necessary to Prevent Congestion

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Cincinnati, O., November 20.—With the hog pens of the local stock yards built to accommodate 15,000 hogs, now holding 22,000, an embargo has been placed on further receipts.

The congested condition is brought about, it is said, by the price fixing method of the government which divides hogs into two lots, one weighing below 130 pounds and the other above 130 pounds.

Leading packers want hogs above 150 according to experts while fresh meat dealers will not buy those between 130 and 150 on account of the high price, but wait and buy those below 130 pounds which are cheaper.

Accordingly there has been a steady accumulation of hogs between 130 and 150 pounds with few buyers for this class and it was decided that an embargo on receipts of hogs was the only possible way out of the difficulty until some other method of price fixing could be arranged with the government.

EXPANSION FOR NAVY

House Naval Committee Already Framing 1920 Appropriation Bill

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, November 20.—Continued naval expansion by the United States without regard at present for possible decision of the peace conference by the formation of a League of Nations or reduction of armament was recommended to Congress today by Secretary Daniels at a private conference with the House Naval Committee which is framing the 1920 naval appropriation bill.

Discussion with the Secretary largely concerned the League of Nations and disarmament called for in President Wilson's peace principles.

Mr. Daniels insisted construction should proceed because these questions are for future settlement and no one can foresee the decision.

TIME BOUNDARY ZONES SETTLED EFFECTIVE JAN. 1

New Time Zone Line Does Not Touch Chillicothe or Circleville But Goes Through Lancaster and Dundas

The Inter-State Commerce Commission has settled the new time zone lines, according to announcement from Washington, and instead of the line passing through Circleville and Chillicothe, as indicated by former reports, the line comes down through Columbus, Lancaster, Dundas and Gallipolis, leaving Circleville and Chillicothe in the Central Time Zone. Columbus also will observe central time, while Lancaster and Gallipolis will observe eastern time.

The new change becomes effective January 1st 1919 and will in no way affect this city and Fayette county, which will have the same time as Columbus, Circleville, Chillicothe and all other towns west of the new time meridian.

The announcement from Washington fully explains the new time arrangement, and follows:

New official boundaries for time zones in the United States, unifying existing times and moving them slightly westward, were announced today by the Inter-State Commerce Commission to become effective at 2 a. m. January 1 next. This order is pursuant to the daylight saving account which, in addition to authorizing an advance of the clock during the summer, provided for permanent United States standard time, and required the commission to define the limits of standard time zones, which previously had been fixed by the custom of cross-continent railroads or by local law.

The line fixed by the commission separating the Eastern and Central time zones, beginning at the Great Lakes, follows the boundary of Michigan through Toledo, Fremont, Clyde, Bellevue, Monroeville, Willard, Shelby Junction, Mansfield, Gallon, Marion, Columbus, Lancaster, Dundas and Gallipolis, Ohio; Huntington, Kenova and Williamson, W. Va.; Dungan, Tenn.; Asheville and Franklin, N. C.; Atlanta, McDonough, Macon, Perry, Americus, Albany and Thomasville, Ga.; the north boundary of Florida to River Junction and the Apalachicola River to the Gulf of Mexico.

Municipalities along the line separating the Eastern and Central zones are to be governed by Central time except Fremont, Clyde, Bellevue, Monroeville, Willard, Shelby Junction, Gallon, Lancaster, Dundas and Gallipolis, Ohio; Dungan, Tenn.; Bristol, Va.-Tenn.; Asheville and Franklin, N. C.; McDonough, Macon, Perry and Thomasville, Ga., which will take Eastern time.

HORSESHOE BEND IS SCENE OF WRECK ON D. T. & I. ROAD

The famous horseshoe bend on the D. T. & I. railroad, near Waverly, was the scene of a disastrous freight wreck on Tuesday, in which 35 cars of coal were upset and scattered along the track for some distance, nearly swamping the little town of Spargarsville.

A double-header coal train was coming down the grade at the summit when train broke. The engines went on but the coal cars jumped the rails and overturned, scattering several thousands of tons of coal about very promiscuously.

No one was injured, but it will probably be some time Thursday morning before the entire wreck is cleared away and traffic resumed as usual.

The Washington Lodge of B. P. O. Elks will hold public memorial services at the High School auditorium Sunday, December 1st, 2:30 o'clock, and the public is cordially invited to attend the ceremonies, no card of admission or formal invitation being necessary.

The ceremonies this year will have added interest by reason of the gold star in the lodge service flag of the order, and by reason of an eloquent address which will be delivered by Justice Maurice H. Donahue, of the Ohio Supreme Court.

Appropriate music will add to the impressiveness of the ceremonies.

NO FURTHER EXAMS. BY THE LOCAL BOARD

No further physical examinations are to be made by the Local Board of Fayette county.

However the classifications of the youths of 18 and the 19 to 37 classes, is to proceed until completed, in order that the government may have a full record of the various classes, at this being regarded as necessary unto the district board from now on, this being regarded unnecessary under present conditions.

POSTOFFICE HERE WILL BE ERECTED

Reports from Washington indicate that in the not distant future the new post office building will be erected in this city, as well as in Wilmington and in other towns which were to have had new buildings immediately had not the war interfered.

Meanwhile the site, owned by the government and located on the corner of Market and Hinde, opposite the Presbyterian church, remains ready for building operations whenever the government proceeds with the work, which is expected to be within the next year or two.

THIRTY-SEVENTH COMING HOME IN NEAR FUTURE

Rainbow Division, It Is Believed Will, From Choice, Remain on Job in Germany for Awhile

Washington, November 20. — The Thirty-seventh National Guard Division will be among the first troops sent home from France. The Thirty-seventh is the Ohio National Guard Division, and the news of its early home-coming will be of interest to many thousands of families in Ohio. Announcement that the Thirty-seventh soon will be on the homeward journey was made by Governor James M. Cox, after a conference he had yesterday with Secretary of War Baker. The governor also learned that the Thirty-seventh Division was in the thick of the fighting as the war came to a close, and probably was hard hit, although the casualties have not yet begun to appear in the announced lists. The Eighty-ninth Division, of which the governor's son-in-law is a member, also saw some hard fighting near the war's end.

Gradually the plans of demobilization as they affect the Ohio soldiers are becoming known, the old Fourth Ohio Regiment, for instance, instead of coming home soon, is headed in the other direction. It is believed this was the choice of the men themselves, and that, being given their opportunity, they preferred to become a part of the army of occupation in Germany and thus "see the job through."

It now is impossible to forecast when the Fourth Ohio will return to the Buckeye State.

Plans New State Guard.
Having learned at the war department that there no longer is any Ohio National Guard, the Governor upon his return to Columbus, will prepare as a suggestion to the forthcoming legislature that provision be made forthwith to proceed with the creation of a new State Guard for state protection.

The State Guard, the governor thinks, will be almost as large as was the Ohio National Guard before it lost its identity in the federal service. The details for the creation of this new state force will depend on legislation to be enacted by the general assembly.

SOLDIERS HOME BOUND WILL BE MET BY MACHINES

A suggestion offered by Sheriff Henry W. Jones, which has found favor with the Fayette County War Work Council, will be carried out from now on, with the co-operation of members of the War Work Council and citizens generally who will volunteer to escort the returning soldier boys to their homes by automobile when they arrive in this city on their way home from camp after being discharged from service.

Sheriff Jones has been made chairman of the committee to furnish transportation to the returning soldiers, so that when the soldiers reach this city by train and have no immediate means of reaching home, they will be offered assistance by notifying Sheriff Jones.

The War Work Council, according to Chairman Daugherty, will render assistance in the matter. Meanwhile all owners of machines who will respond when called upon for this commendable work are urged to notify Sheriff Jones, placing their auto at his disposal when needed.

The action is the result of a soldier reaching this city a few nights ago, and his home was ten miles distant, so that had not a local citizen volunteered aid, the young man would have been compelled to seek other means to reach home.

FOOD AND FUEL CLERKS TO GO

Between 25 and 30 clerks at the state fuel administration were advised yesterday that their work will end December 15, as the department of conservation will close then.

A small force will be retained, however, and the work of distribution continued under J. H. Frantz, state fuel administrator, according to the announcement.

Clerks of the sugar division of the state food administration have been advised to accept new positions as opportunity presents, because the work of this division may end in January.

"Indications are that by January we will be able to remove all sugar restrictions," said Food Administrator Croxton. "This practically will abolish the sugar distribution division. The other work of the food administration, however, will continue. It faces more difficult tasks now from a world-relief standpoint than it did before hostilities ceased." Fifty to 60 employees are in sugar distribution work. Cards for January allotments, which are expected to be the last ones, will be issued before the close of December.

The President Will Go to Europe

It is announced now, officially, that President Wilson will go to France for the great world peace conference.

It will be the first time that a president of the United States has left the western hemisphere during his term of office, but President Wilson has broken so many long-standing precedents that the American people are not surprised that one more should be cast aside to enable him to better meet the demands of the occasion.

There is no doubt about the position occupied by the president of the United States—he is generally regarded as the foremost figure in the world in the framing of the peace treaty which is to embody new and fundamental truths of sound democracy never before incorporated in a treaty between nations of the old world or even seriously urged.

There are two reasons why the presence of the chief executive will be of great benefit at the peace table; one is the clear logic of the President and the high ideals to which he holds, and the other is his position as the executive head of the greatest democracy on which the sun ever shone.

The framing of the treaty of Paris marks the dawn of a new era. The citadel of autocracy has fallen and the hosts of democracy are called upon to lay the foundation of the new order of things.

There never was such an occasion in the history of mankind as the framing of the treaty of Paris will be, and that the first foundation stones of the great new structure, which is to arise on the ruins of the old, may be laid true, it is highly important that the representative of the greatest democracy on earth, and the man whose ideals have done so much to hold the allied and associated powers together in times of storm should be present when the new international ship of state is launched.

There will be objections, of course. There are arguments against as well as in favor of his going abroad, but the tremendous importance of the occasion both warrants ignoring a custom, which has nothing save its observance to recommend it, and demands the presence at the peace table of the man whose ideals were the enduring ambition of ourselves and our allies, and finally, the basis upon which our enemies gave up the hopeless struggle.

Disposing of The Former Kaiser

What is to be done with the former Kaiser of Germany?

That is a question with which more people are concerned and a question discussed by more people than any other one question growing out of the war. The questions of national boundaries, of governmental foundations, of indemnities, of demobilization of armies, of peace pacts, of the reconstruction and readjustment of industrial and commercial life, of methods mobilizing the labor of the world and many other grave questions which confront us are left to the statesmen to dispose of, but the disposition of the former war lord is a question with which millions are concerning themselves.

At present Wilhelm is the guest of the German court circle in Holland and the sturdy Dutch people resent his presence in their country even to the extent of a demand by some for the abdication of the Queen. The unrest in Holland is growing to such proportions that the former war lord is considering seriously of hiking back to Berlin.

Some news dispatches credit the former emperor with a desire to spend his declining years in Corfu, one of the most beautiful spots in all the world. Corfu is the most northerly island of the Ionian group off the west coast of Greece. The climate is delightful and the palaces are superb. Corfu has a population of considerably more than one hundred thousand people—altogether an ideal place and a place which would be chosen as a residence by one whose service entitled him to the best things in life.

It is inconceivable that this arch criminal should be allowed to spend his declining years in pleasure at Corfu while Napoleon, a military genius who waged humane wars, not always, either, of his own choosing, should be condemned to end his days on the barren island of St. Helena, twelve hundred miles west of the coast of Africa in the Atlantic Ocean.

The former war lord of Germany must pay the debt for his misdeeds. People everywhere demand that. He must leave Holland. He will not be permitted to go in luxury to Corfu and the world doesn't want him sent to St. Helena.

That spot—bleak and desolate—is sacred to the memory of a great soldier who paid to autocracy for his ambition and his attacks on a decadent system, a man who in spite of his mistakes was great and served humanity.

POEM FOR TODAY

BROKEN DOLLS FOR SALE

We offer you dolls that are broken, today,
We've brought them from Belgium and France;
We've gathered them out of the wreck, where they lay,
In the path of the devil's dance,
Where the toy shops are wrecked and the keepers are gone—
There's no place to store them away,
O, who'll buy these dolls from the wreckage of France?
'Twill cost but a penny a day.

Time was when these dolls were all pretty and new;
When nobody's money could buy,
'Tis a wonderful bargain we offer to you,
In each little pitiful toy,
But the toy shops are wrecked and the keepers are gone,
There's no place to store them away,
O, who'll buy these dolls from the wreckage of France?
'Twill cost but a penny a day.

Now here is a doll that is minus a hand,
And here's one that is dreadfully lame;
O, here is a dolly too tiny to stand!
And here's one that's minus a name,
But the toy shops are wrecked and the keepers are gone,
There's no place to store them away,
O, who'll buy live dolls from the wreckage of France?
'Twill cost but a penny a day.

News of Interest to Women

A recherche luncheon characterized by exquisite appointments, was given by Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins Tuesday at one o'clock, in compliment to her guest, Miss Jane Samuel, of Korea.

The atmosphere of the home radiated its accustomed hospitality from the moment the charming hostess, handsomely gowned in taupe satin, with garniture of flet lace and turquoise blue, gave gracious welcome.

Miss Samuel, an exceptionally interesting and delightful honor guest was wearing a beautiful gown of mahogany chiffon appliqued in velvet.

The luncheon table with its cuneate lace and sparkling silver, was lovely mahogany and gold chrysanthemums forming the central embellishment. Clever place cards provided introductory merriment after the seating of the guests, and stimulated the gaiety of the luncheon hour.

The elaborate courses included every delicacy of the season.

Music and interesting glimpses of life in Korea as Miss Samuel had found it during her years of missionary work, were features of the delightful afternoon.

The privileged guests with Mrs. Hopkins, her guest and mother, Mrs. Ellen Jones, were Mesdames J. L. McWilliams, William Boynton Gage, Lulu H. Robinson, Bella L. Ustick, G. W. Blakeley, H. B. Dahl, D. S. Craig, J. M. Willis, L. H. Goddard, Frank S. Jackson, Wm. M. Mitchener, Regina U. Staibus; Nollin Hathaway, Misses Emma McDonald and Ella Hess.

"In place of the fourth meal"—Mrs. F. G. Carpenter is preparing a program for her division, which will entertain at G. A. R. hall Friday afternoon. Any one willing to help with the gifts of knee comforts for the veterans, and jelly for Civil War widows will be welcome.

The Charlotte Tuttle Sisterhood held a business and social meeting with Mrs. Robert Bryson Tuesday night, Mrs. Regina U. Staibus, President, presided. During the business session the following officers were elected for the coming year: Miss Alta Sprenger, President; Mrs. Olive Manning Sprenger, Vice President; Miss Anna Passmore, Secretary; Mrs. Chas. Gage Treasurer.

The first meeting of the new year in December will be an experience meeting.

Light refreshments were served by the hostess and the women lingered in enjoyable sociability.

On Tuesday Miss Rose McLean entertained the Senior and Junior Clonians with a charming luncheon, with the club colors, green and white, prettily used in decoration.

The affair was especially complimenting Miss Dorothy Fullerton, a favorite Junior, who is leaving Thursday to engage in war work under the Young Women's Christian Association.

The interest of the gathering centered in the plans of this unusually bright and talented girl, who is well equipped for her chosen line of work and will undoubtedly make good as far as opportunity, under present changing conditions in Women's war activities, permits. Miss Fullerton will take a three weeks' course in intensive training at Richmond, Va., preparatory for an Industrial Secretaryship.

The hours following the luncheon were most pleasurable, the congenial club women finding subjects galore for spirited conversation and enjoying it doubly as a preliminary to the club work to follow during the winter.

Mrs. J. B. Koontz, of Springfield, was an out of town guest.

In honor of Mrs. John L. Whittington (nee Louise Larrimer) Misses Elizabeth and Harriette Allen entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner Tuesday evening.

Yellow and white chrysanthemums carried out the color scheme.

Seated with the honor guest and hostesses were Miss Lizzie Ellen Green and Messrs. Edgar and Geo. Manual.

The Cecilians met for the second time this month Tuesday afternoon in order to bring their program up to date.

With a full attendance and two programs of Italian music the afternoon proved most delightful. The singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" led by Miss Elizabeth Sheen, prefaced the program and the Club resolved to learn the words of "America," "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

The programs were composed of very pretty numbers by Italian composers, running the gamut from Venetian street songs to Grand Opera numbers. The following numbers were presented:

Current Events—Mrs. Fannie J. Hodson.

Italian Opera—Mrs. Nettie H. Ballard.

Giovanni Sgambati—Mrs. Clara G. White.

Piano—Vecchio Minuetto, Mrs. Myrtle C. Klever.

Niccolo Paganini—Mrs. Lillie G. Davis.

Violin—Sarabanda, Miss Mazie Kessler.

Piano—Nutturmo, Mrs. Lulu H. Sheets.

Songs—Margarita, Addio Napoli, Miss Edith Gardner.

Songs—Nina, Spring, Mrs. Winnie W. Shoop.

Piano—Britannia, Marseillaise, Miss Helen Teeters.

"Song of Home"—Mrs. J. L. Whittington.

Girl war workers in Washington are gradually finding relief from the unpromising living conditions heretofore confronting them. An especially helpful measure has been the recent taking over by the United States housing corporation of many of the stately old mansions of the capital for the use of these newcomers. Several of these houses have been opened and are being operated successfully.

The establishment of the Ordnance Club at 1711 I Street, Northwest, is an interesting case in point. Commodiously built, this house is to be used as a combination home and clubhouse for the women personnel of the civilian branch of the army ordnance department. The extensive ground-floor suite has been fitted up as a reading and recreation room, while the two upper stories, of five rooms each, will furnish uncrowded sleeping quarters for a fortunate 15 of the unit. Open fireplaces, old-fashioned mahogany furniture and well-filled book shelves contribute to the atmosphere of general comfort and refinement which distinguishes the whole place. Winter recreational plans for the members include occasional dances, musicals, plays and other feature entertainments.

Girls who occupy the sleeping rooms pay, of course, a moderate rental for their quarters. As soon as arrangements can be completed a cafe is to be opened, where nourishing food in sufficient quantity will be served the members.

The meeting of the Browning Club on Tuesday evening was unusually interesting. The President Mrs. Julia Dahl presided and gave an impressive talk concerning the club from its organization up to the present time, and what it has meant to her personally, as an example of what to others. She asked the co-operation of members in making the coming years successful.

Mrs. Dahl's enthusiasm and efforts will do much toward establishing an ideal for Browning members.

The program was in charge of the Literature department, Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter, chairman.

Mrs. Blanche McFadden gave a delightful reading—"The Courtship of Miles Standish." Her cutting was excellent, and it presented the movement and rhythm of this much loved poem. She gave characterization to the man, "who was a maker of war and not a maker of phrases."

The description of Priscilla and her welcome to John Alden, who came to woo her for his warrior friend was very vivid. Then followed the humiliation of John Alden, and the denunciation of Miles Standish.

The meeting of Priscilla and John Alden that revealed the truth to the real lover, was beautifully presented. The happy closing scene completed an effective rendition.

Mrs. Mary Duff's paper on "Books and the Book World" showed much study and originality in arrangement of material. On account of the times, Mrs. Duff confined her paper to war literature. It is claimed that since the advent of motor cars and movies, which furnish sufficient pastime, the character of our reading is more serious.

The war has brought forth many excellent productions.

The meaning of "Over the Top" has been given to us by Guy Empey. Kaiserism is revealed in Girard's "Four Years in Germany." In four essays by a Columbia University professor Monroe Smith, the origin, the procedure and the motive of the war are expressed in a convincing manner.

Baroness Huard a former New York woman has contributed valuable reminiscences in "My Home in the Field of War" and "My Home in the Field of Mercy." The Germans spent "nine black days" in her home, and she doubts if any other animals could have wrought greater havoc.

"From a Real Turk" by Stanwood Cobb brings out many facts favorable to these people. Langman's "Fighting in France is a true picture of French patriotism.

In Kipling's "Eyes of Asia" the old East Indian life is transplanted to France. His book of verse "Jethame" contains many war poems.

Lander's "A Minstral in France" and Masfield's the "Old Front Line" are interesting and the latter in Gallipoli tells us of the awful experiences of the Dardanelles campaign.

Tribute was paid to Allen Seeger and the new book by H. G. Wells "God the Invisible King."

The paper closed with Mr. Britling's prophecy, "The time draws near when mankind will awake and then there will be no nationality in all the world, no king, no emperor, nor leader, but the one God of mankind."

Discussion followed the paper, and the announcement of the next program will be given by the Art department.

Mrs. Rose Hughey, of Bainbridge, has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Hughey, the past two days.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gray and children, Margaret Jane and Eugene Briggs, returned to their home in Dayton Tuesday after a visit with Mrs. Gray's sister, Mrs. P. E. DeCatur. Mrs. Frank McCoy, who also was here to attend the McCoy Golden Wedding accompanied them for a few days visit before going on to her home in Akron.

Mrs. L. W. Thomas, of Hillsboro is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. V. Boyd.

Mrs. R. C. Peddicord and mother, Mrs. Aurelia Westfield returned on Tuesday night from a visit in Cincinnati. Mrs. Peddicord going on to New Albany, Ind., to spend Sunday with Miss Mayme Frisbie.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Duff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles U. Armstrong were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kessler at Jeffersonville.

Mr. Willard Wilson is attending the Implement Dealers' Convention at Columbus today. Governor Cox talks to the dealers this evening. Mrs. Wilson and son Billy accompanied Mr. Wilson, visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Dunn.

County Treasurer Duff is in Akron today attending the annual convocation of the Knights Templar as delegate from the Garfield Commandery of this city.

Pvt. Audleigh Doster, of Greenfield, who was called home from a western camp by the illness of his father, Hon. Coke Doster, was a visitor here today.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mader and daughter, Dorothy, arrive from Greenfield Thursday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Mader.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Beale and baby daughter, Jean, returned to their home in Urbana Tuesday after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Beale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jud Clark. Mr. Beale has quite recovered from his serious attack of the influenza during that time.

Mr. F. W. Cline went to Columbus Wednesday evening to take the degrees of Scottish Rite Masonry.

Messrs. W. H. Dial, Frank Christopher, J. A. Worrell and Horace Ireland are among local Masons attending the Scottish Rite meeting in Columbus today.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thornton and little son DeWitt, are moving today into their home on Leesburg Avenue which has recently been remodeled and made modern throughout. This house was formerly the Pinkerton home.

Sister Elizabeth Seaton returned to Chillicothe Wednesday after spending the past few weeks at the home of her father, Mr. John McDonald.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Hyer had as their guests from Sunday until Tuesday evening their daughters and their children, Mrs. S. E. Barlow, daughter Ruth, and Mrs. Lang Johnson and daughter Elizabeth of Columbus.

Mrs. William Fogle, who has been very ill at her home on South North street, is some better today.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

The Stars and Stripes, the organ of the American expeditionary force has arranged for November 24 as the day upon which all the American troops shall write home to father. Special delivery arrangements are under way in order that "fathers' day" shall be as successful as "mothers' day," May 12 last. It is hoped that the fathers will write to their sons on the same day.

FIFTY TONS OF BOOKS WANTED

General Pershing has called for fifty tons of books a month to help win the war. Each soldier that goes up the gang-plank of a transport in America is given a book with the request that he carry it ashore when he reaches a French port. Here they are forwarded to the trenches. The demand for books never ceases. They received hard usage and are short-lived.

The American Library Association is collecting these books for soldiers and sailors. Two million more books are needed at the present time to stock the libraries and recreation building in this country and France. By supplying the fiction, the public enables the American Library Association to buy technical books which are so necessary, not only for the soldiers who are going over, but for the disabled and, please God, victorious soldiers who are coming back!—Alice Hegan Rice, in "Wanted—Books for the Soldiers!" in the December Red Cross Magazine.

THE CHRISTMAS ROLL CALL

The Christmas call of a year ago for 15,000,000 members succeeded beyond all forecasts. The result was a roster of 22,000,000 grown-ups, and a subsequent addition of 8,000,000 juniors. The Roll Call week of this year, December 16 to 23, will find no eligible loyal American out of hearing distance. The answer to the Christmas Roll Call for membership in the Red Cross is not the gift of money. It is the greater gift of faith and loyalty.—From The Red Cross Magazine for December.

The shortages growing out of the war are hitting in some very unexpected places. Even the dolls have not escaped. A manufacturer of these toys said that he had stopped manufacturing soldier dolls because of the scarcity of cotton khaki cloth. From present indications the little dolls that are now garbed in knitted bathing suits or little caps and sweaters will have to change their raiment, as recommendation has been made to manufacturers of fancy knit goods that the making of dolls' garments be discontinued because of the wool shortage.—New York Tribune.

PRESIDENT WILL BE RESIDENT OF U. S. EMBASSY

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, November 20.—President Wilson has set no limits on the length of his stay abroad in connection with the meeting of the peace conference. This was the impression gained by Senators at a conference with the President last night.

While the formal announcement of the decision to go to France said it was "not likely that it will be possible for him to remain through the conference but his presence at the outset is necessary," in the minds of the Senators there was a belief that Mr. Wilson would remain abroad indefinitely, and at least until the greater part of the peace conference is finished.

While absent from the United States the Senators said the President intends to conduct all affairs of his office as though he were in Washington.

The President is understood to hold that while staying at an American Embassy abroad he is technically on American soil and for that reason can perform practically all the functions of his office.

Special interest in the principle of freedom of the seas and the belief that the foundation for a league of nations should be laid at the conference was understood to be the determining factor for the President's decision to go abroad.

Regarding the end of the war, an Iowa boy writes home from France that "it will take one year to whip the Huns and thirty-nine more to wind up the barb wire."—Kansas City Star.

Probably the reason that the girl who attacked Lenin was less successful than Charlotte Corday is that she could never catch the Russian Bolshevik in a bath-tub.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

DECREE OF ABDICATION SIGNED BY THE KAISER

(By Associated Press Cable)

Paris, November 19.—In order to end the discussion as to whether William Hohenzollern has really abdicated as German emperor, it is understood the German government intends to publish his decree of abdication. This consists of an attempt to justify the war on the ground of Germany's isolation.

The abdication decree, according to the correspondent at Zurich of L'Information, concludes with these words:

"To avoid difficulties and to put an end to the mourning and suffering of my people, I renounce the throne and leave my faithful subjects free to choose a government which seems to them most compatible with honor and to their interest."

LYCEUM COURSE TO BE ABANDONED

By reason of the recent influenza outbreak which upset plans generally, and the fact that the bureau could not furnish satisfactory dates, the committee which several weeks ago organized for the purpose of bringing a lyceum course to the city during the winter has abandoned plans for a course during the present winter.

However the committee has under consideration the bringing to this city of an attraction which may be worth the price of an entire lyceum course ticket.

LOSES HEAVILY IN WIND STORM

During a heavy windstorm in Madison county, a couple of days ago a straw shed was blown down upon a number of fine young cattle owned by Geo. Baum, ten of the steers were killed and it is believed a number of others smothered to death, the work of removing the mass of straw still being under way at last reports.

SECOND GOLD STAR PLACED ON FLAG

BREAKS NEWS OF LOSS OF A LIMB

Writing to his mother, Mrs. Mary Wolfe, of Bowersville, Private Rudolph Wolfe tells in the following language of the loss of one leg as result of wounds received in action some time ago.

His letter to his mother, written October 22, says:

Dear Mother:—Well, I expect you think I am dead by this time, but far from it. I am in whole lot better condition than I was when I wrote you last, which has been nearly if not quite, three weeks ago. You have, no doubt, received Lieutenant Austin's letter of a couple of weeks ago.

I have been through a whole lot since I have come to this hospital. I don't know whether the Censor will pass this or not, but if he knew you like I do, that is you do not worry half so much when you know the truth as when you know they are trying to keep something from you, so here goes. I expect to be back in Uncle Sam's land in less than three months, and help eat all that good canned goods you folks are putting up, and help eat some of those winter fries you wrote about in your letter. I got nine letters the other day, three from you and one from Paye, I guess it was Paye who was talking about the fried chickens this winter.

Well I expect you are wondering what is bringing me home. Well, it was an amputation. I had several hemorrhages, and they had to amputate just above the knee, I am sitting up in bed and getting as fat as a pig. I lost lots of blood, but the boys gave me some of theirs, fixed me up all right. I said to the Doctor the other day, "Well it is just six weeks until Thanks giving, I hope to be up then." He said, "You will be away from this hospital and may be on the way home." So don't worry. I am O. K. and have done my duty for God and Old Glory and Uncle Sam takes care of his boys, and in less than a year I will be walking on my new leg and you could hardly tell the difference. I am glad it is not an arm, so don't worry. Rejoice and be glad that I am happy and we will all be home together before many moons.

With love to all from your soldier boy,

RUDOLPH.

PIMPPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound, mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
